DEAR KEN

I RECEIVED YOUR LETTER TODAY, OPENED IT IMMEDIATELY

Many people have asked me about "when did you decide to become an architect," or "how did you get started." I tell them with so much pride about my merit badge in 9th grade, and my neighbor & counselor Ken Erickson who worked along side of my father at Stout, and who told me that the damn coach shouldn't have me running fullback. The guy who piqued my interest in model airplanes and who had a "whole wood shop" in his basement.

This is a hell of a time to tell you Ken, but thank you for all the love, patience, and kindness, not to mention guidance you gave to me.

You Are Always Leading

Even when you don't think you are!

It takes times like these to stop the bloody merry go round just enough to allow one to feel the life they have lived. What a tremendous influence you have been in my life, and from the sounds of your plans, you will continue the life of giving for some very deserving kids.

Come to think of it, that is what I remember most about my dad, my mom, and the folks who were friends of our family. They were always sharing, caring and giving - of their time and resources. Positive, always looking for the good in people. That is the
